Some further notes:

This template is developed for Scientific Workplace 5.5 and has not been tested on other versions.

For proper output, you need the graphic `EconEpsilon.jpg`, available at www.economics-ejournal.org. Place it in the graphics directory of your SWS installation `C:\swp55\Graphics\`. If you place the graphics somewhere else, you have to change the first line in the preamble accordingly. Currently it is `\newcommand\typopath{C:/swp55/Graphics/EconEpsilon}`.

If the file `EconEpsilon.jpg` is located in `C:\Documents\New`, the line has to be changed into `\newcommand\typopath{C:/Documents/New/EconEpsilon}`, for instance. (Note that you have to replace backslashes by slashes in the path. Avoid blanks in paths and filenames, as LaTeX may not swallow them. I have not tested that with SWP, though.)

Make sure that you compile with `pdflatex`. (View and print as PDF).

For the bibliography, use the Economics E-Journal stylesheet `EconEJ.bst`, available at www.economics-ejournal.org. In order to make it available, you have to copy this stylesheet to the BibTeX directory of your Scientific Workplace installation. Refer to SWP Help for instructions on how to handle BibTeX style files and to create bibliographies.)

For pictures and tables, right-click on the object and use float placement on top of page. Remove all other ticks.
